

Luna Cosmetics — Los Angeles, CA, USA

Subject: Looking for a 3PL partner

Hi,

We're Luna Cosmetics, a small direct-to-consumer skincare brand out of LA. We've been doing our own fulfillment out of a garage (seriously) but we just crossed 5,000 orders a month and it's not sustainable anymore.

We need someone to handle warehousing and shipping for us across the US — ideally someone who can also handle carrier selection since we don't have relationships with any carriers yet.

Could you send over a proposal? We're hoping to be up and running within the next 3 weeks (around August 24th) since the holidays are coming and we can't keep doing this by hand.

Best,

Maya Chen
